

HEARING ON PETITION OF DANIELSON COTTON CO.

To Build Pole Line from its Power
Plant on the Quinebaug.

(Special to The Bulletin.)

Hartford, May 18.—There was a hearing held before the committee on incorporations today on the petition of the Danielson Cotton company for an amendment to the charter allowing it to build a pole line from its power plant on the Quinebaug river, six miles above Danielson.

The original hearing was held some time ago, and the committee on incorporations reported favorably upon it. It was held up, however, because it held the right of eminent domain, to give which to a private corporation is against the policy of the state.

The company has secured most of the right of way, but there are certain portions reported favorably upon it. It was held up, however, because it held the right of eminent domain, to give which to a private corporation is against the policy of the state.

Blow of Stone May Cause Death of Edward Donovan—

As an outcome of the legal suits brought against John M. Burke of Westerly when president of the Ancient Order of Hibernians of America for the state of Rhode Island, Division No. 12 of Providence has finally affiliated with the board of Erin. A motion presented at the last meeting that the division reorganize and affiliate with the parent body in Ireland was carried after considerable debate by a vote of 47 to 3, and henceforth the organization will be known as Division 3, Ancient Order Hibernians, Board of Erin.

The troubles of this division began three years ago, when the treasurer was suspended by the president, and was afterwards expelled upon the recommendation of the standing committee. An appeal was taken by the division treasurer to the state officers, who suspended the division until such time as the treasurer was reinstated. Then followed several suits in the courts of the state, in which the action of the state officers was upheld by the courts. This division is one of the oldest in America, having been organized over half a century.

Dr. John W. Keefe of Providence, who makes frequent visits to Westerly, has received commission as first lieutenant in the United States medical reserve corps. The functions of the medical reserve corps are largely consulting, it being the object of the government to have the best medical advice in the country at its command. The meetings of the corps are at the call of the surgeon general of the army, who convenes the board when consultation upon some particular phase relative to the health of the troops is necessary.

Edward Donovan, the 10 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Donovan, of John street, in a critical condition. About a week ago he was struck in the left side of the head with a stone thrown by his own age, but at the time there was nothing to indicate serious results until Monday. He then became ill and during the night suffered twenty convulsions, caused by concussion of the brain. Tuesday evening the boy was delirious and there was doubt as to his recovery.

John Roebuck of East avenue received very painful injury while at work on his farm Tuesday morning. He was chopping out a piece of wood to replace a part of a farm implement when a knot of wood flew out and struck his left eye, cutting through the and bruising and cutting the eye. He was given prompt medical attention, but whether the sight is affected cannot at present be determined.

Judge Edward M. Burke held regular session of Westerly probate court Tuesday afternoon. Walter T. Tefft was appointed administrator of the estate of the late wife, Ella T. Tefft, who died in Westerly April 4, 1908. Bonds were fixed at $500. It was represented that the personal estate will not exceed $200.

The inventory of the estate of Charles H. Barber, showing valuation of $202.25, was received and ordered recorded. George Clark, administrator, was authorized to sell the property of the estate at private sale, at not less than inventory.

In the estate of Luke B. Maxson, which had been declared to be insolvent, and two claims disallowed, there was consideration of the commission's report.

Judge Nathan B. Lewis appeared as counsel for the executor and objected to the report on the ground that the claims were not legal. John Maxson, the adopted son of testator, puts in claim for services and board for his foster father covering a period of sixteen years. Judge Lewis contended that they had lived as father and son, and that John Maxson had no intention of putting in a claim until he ascertained after the death of Luke Maxson that the will was not favorable to him. Then this claim was set up, although there was no contract of any kind during the lifetime of Luke Maxson.

Judge John W. Sweeney, counsel for John Maxson, spoke in favor of the acceptance of the report of the commission, stating that the report was based on the testimony taken at their hearing, and that their finding was in strict compliance with law, and that therefore that report was legal and that the claim of John F. Maxson should therefore be allowed. The other claim

There's no room about the house more inviting than a snow-white bath room.

The tub, the bowl, the wash basin, the metal pipes, fixtures and taps, the tiling and woodwork all need the cleansing, brightening influence of Gold Dust.

It has been observed from the first that the musician evinced no warm interest in the objects of the town associated with the memory of the great dramatist.

"Shakespeare. Oh, yes, Shakespeare," murmured the Italian, wearily. "Whereupon one of the party, volunteered a hint."

"You recollect, maestro, 'Amleto' and 'Romeo e Giulietta'?"

"Yes, yes, I understand," replied the musician. "Ze librettist!"—Harper's Weekly.

23:15 O'Clock.

A New York manufacturing concern in which only one-half of the employees work in the daytime has a 24-hour clock in the timekeeper's office, by which the work record is noted. The business day begins at one o'clock in the morning, and when other clocks indicate midnight this factory time piece shows that it is 24 o'clock. The men who go in work at the time ordinarily known as six p. m., are recorded as having started at 18 o'clock. The people in charge of the work say that this change in the timekeeping method has prevented many errors, and although it took the men a little while to become accustomed to it they now speak of 14 and 18 o'clock in a matter-of-fact way and without the smile which at first the strange figures provoked.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

The Synagogue Disagreement.

An unpleasant disturbance occurred to mar the usual tranquility of the services held at the Hebrew synagogue in Westerly on Saturday last.

Charles and Phil Goldberg, former members of the congregation, Charles Goldberg having been but lately its president, had resigned their membership owing to some misunderstanding between them and the congregation. However, they were present last Saturday at the gathering succeeding their resignations.

At that service, while the newly elected president, S. Solovitzky, was presiding, Philip Goldberg made known his presence by a series of loudly intoned interruptions. At once the trustees remonstrated him. He persisted in his remarks, which were directed in uncompromising terms towards the new president.

His action was ignored at first, but when on reading of the scrolls, the most important, impressive and sacred part of the services, both the Goldbergs interrupted in loud voice, the president requested them to reserve all discussion until after the services. As President Sander Solovitzky was dignifiedly importuning a respectful silence, with much unpolite Philip Goldberg struck the venerable reader.

Harry Solovitzky hastened to his father's assistance and Charles Goldberg to his brother's. There was a brief clash, but as Harry is a young man of robust strength and athletic quickness he was able to protect his father from further injury.

Apple Pie Tgo Good.

The superintendent of the dining car service on one of our great railroad systems is protesting hotly against the quality of apple pie served by the baker who supplies this luxury. "It is too blamed good," he exclaimed. "We don't want it so good! It is pie, pie, pie, apple pie, all the time at every call for dinner, and with each slice of apple pie every passenger demands half a pint of cream! If the pie wasn't so good our cream bill would be about one-tenth of what it is. It's ten cents' worth of pie and a quarter's worth of cream!"
